—LAWA BUILDING.—The Ottogays say that the work of covering the new buildings is progressing so rapidly that the superintendence of Mr.

Gov. Morton and Yates were at Louisville to-day obtaining facts relating to Buell's campaign. They proceeded to Columbus to meet Gov. Tod to-night. It was understood that Gov. Tod does not intend the scheme fully, while Governor Morgan of New York declines attending the gathering.

The Rebel Gen. Morgan is still at large. He will probably remain in Kentucky. Our cavalry are in pursuit of him.
